[Rasul Allah 7]
It was approximately six a.m. in the morning
 Got up just before Fajir and made prayer
 In Brooklyn religiously and passion
 My adrenaline was rushing
Blood boiling while sweat was pouring down my face
 I made my peace with Allah
 My name's Mohammed Atta
 Chosen by Al-Qaeda
To become the leading sacrifice of the 19 Magnificent
And with fire in my eyes I proceeded to Logan International Airport
 Met up with my disciple Abdulaziz Omari and three others
 All with their machetes, switchblades and boxcutterz
 Scheduled four boarding flight American Airlines
Number 11 at 6:45, seven minutes later I received a phone call
 From a longtime colleague, and he asked me "Is the plan set?"
 I said "Yes" "And may Allah bless you and grant you paradise"
I said "Salaam and may peace be upon you and I will see you in the afterlife"

[Richard Raw]
This is the Government of the United States
 What you're about to do is a major mistake
 It's a ploy to destroy people over some hate
 We will invade Iraq if you don't listen
We seen it coming a long time, we had a suspicion
 We know Bush fucked up, but please don't do it
 You're headed to the airport, we already knew it
The Government owes Osama and this we know
 We about to gather the troops
 Army fatigue suits, black Timberland boots
 Fighting, fighting, fighting

[Rasul Allah 7]
As I walk through the checkpoint disrupting the metal detector
Security system, identification non-detectable, the immigration
 So we entered the aircraft, and we sat in first class
 Ten minutes later at last

The first flight attendant gagged and stabbed twice in the stomach
Bitch get on the floor
We want the keys to the cockpit door
We jammed our way in, and strangled the flight captain
My accomplice slit the throats of the first officer
And second flight attendant sprayed mace
Entered the passenger area, somebody yelled...
"This plane is being hi-jacked"
I said "Yes"
The destination is to crash into center of the World Trade Center
And to seek death and my freedom, Asalamu Alaykum
